2018 Quilt Show

We are pleased to report we have volunteers to coordinate next year's Quilt Show! Rita Beal, Deb Galvin, Lisa Hyde and Cari Secord have graciously stepped up to the challenge. They will be seeking people to head up and work on committees so please let them know you are willing to help.

General News

Our last official Quiltathon of the season was held on March 25th. Sixteen people attended and worked on assembling quilts using the February block of the month design, as well as the March block of the month. Quiltathons are a great way to spend a Saturday morning. There is always laughter and enthusiasm as we sew and get to know one another better.

Voyager Show and Tell

Anne Herman, who coordinated the event on March 1, reported there was great interest in the display. There was a large selection of Charity Quilts as well as items made for personal use by Q2 members. Visitors to the display voiced their admiration for the quality of the quilts and the variety of organizations to which we donate. Thank you, Anne, for taking on coordinating the Show and Tell display, and thank you to all the volunteers who helped man the booth.

Classes

We have enjoyed a wide variety of classes this season. A big thank you to our own Q2 volunteer instructors for sharing their time and expertise. We also enjoyed having an "outside" instructor - Swan Sheridan - teach a number of classes. Lynne is looking for suggestions for next year's classes. Is there a special skill you would like to learn or have you seen a pattern you would like to sew? If you would like to volunteer to teach a class next year, please let Lynne know.

Market Daze Raffle

The last Market Daze for the season was held March 22. Donna Belknap has done a wonderful job coordinating the Quilters 2 sales table. This was the first year we had a variety of items for raffle instead of one large quilt. Thanks to everyone who donated items and also volunteered at the booth. Many members of Quilters 2 supported the raffles by purchasing tickets and were lucky winners of a quilt!

Charity Distribution

New Charity Coordinator, Pat Rapp, did the final distribution for this season. 75 quilts were distributed. This brings the season total for donations to 365 quilted items, distributed to 16 different charities.
